BRAND STORY

HOA LOC RR was established with the purpose of accompanying & sharing with farmers on the way of building and promoting the value of Vietnamese agricultural products to the world. With more than 15 years of experience in the fruit industry, HOA LOC RR confidently provides a variety of fresh, delicious and quality fruits for both domestic and international markets.

Currently, the company has successfully founded a process to prolong the freshness of many fruits after harvest. Specifically, passion fruit's shelf life is 30 - 50 days, Ido longan's shelf life is 40 - 50 days, Taiwanese mango's shelf life is 15-20 days, ... successfully exported to many countries such as France, Russia, Singapore, the Netherlands.

Vission

Hoa Loc RR is determined to build and develop a strong brand name in the field of fruit. The company accompanies farmers to create and supply fresh, high-quality Vietnamese fruits to domestic and foreign markets. Hoa Loc RR desires to be able to export more and more fruits to the international market, helping to flourish the Vietnam's agriculture and improve the lives of farmers.

Sứ mệnh

- 🌍 Expanding the export market of Vietnamese fruit to many countries around the world.

Enhancing the value of Vietnamese fruit helps improve farmers' lives.

Core Value

Prestige & Quality

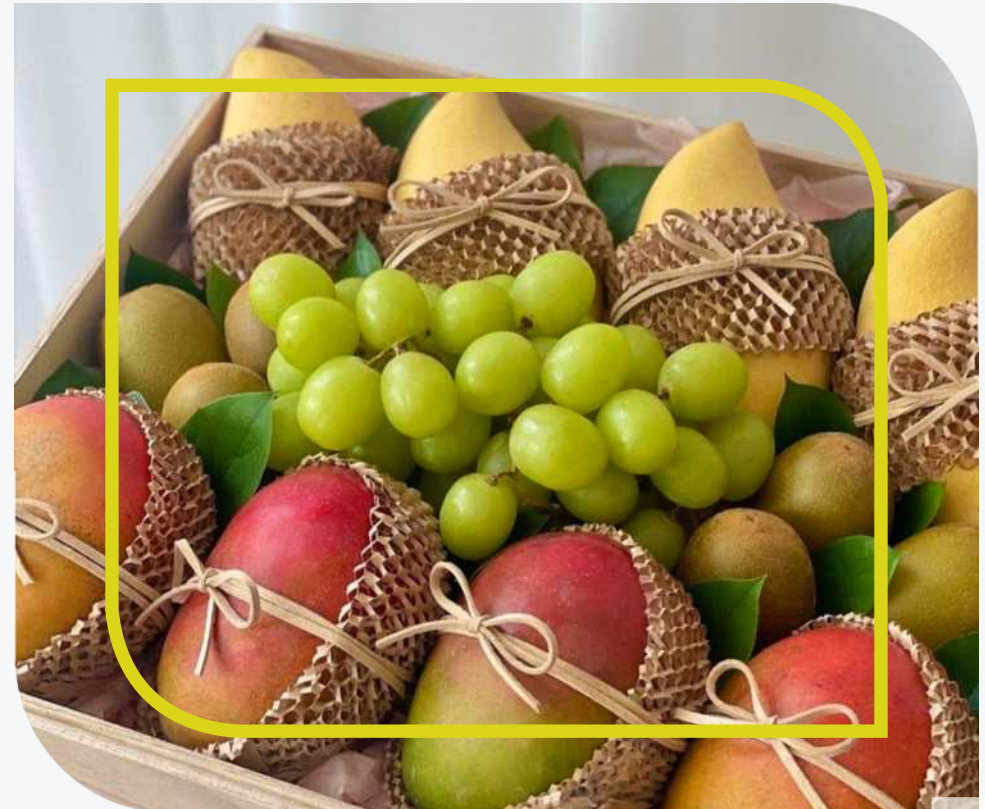

With the motto "Quality creates value", Hoa Loc RR's team always creates products with a spirit of caution and responsibility to ensure the quality committed to customers.

Cooperation & Sharing

Enterprises together with "customers, partners and farmers" cooperate in the spirit of sharing and understanding towards mutual benefits and building long-term connections.

Improvement & Development

Always listening to comments from customers and partners to understand and improve ourselves is what our company is aiming for. Hoa Loc RR believes that "There is no best, only better".

Our raw material areas are certificated for good agricultural production practices according to VietGap. This quality assurance system allows us to confidently use these fruit resources served to our beloved customers without concern about harmful elements like other unchecked fruit resources.

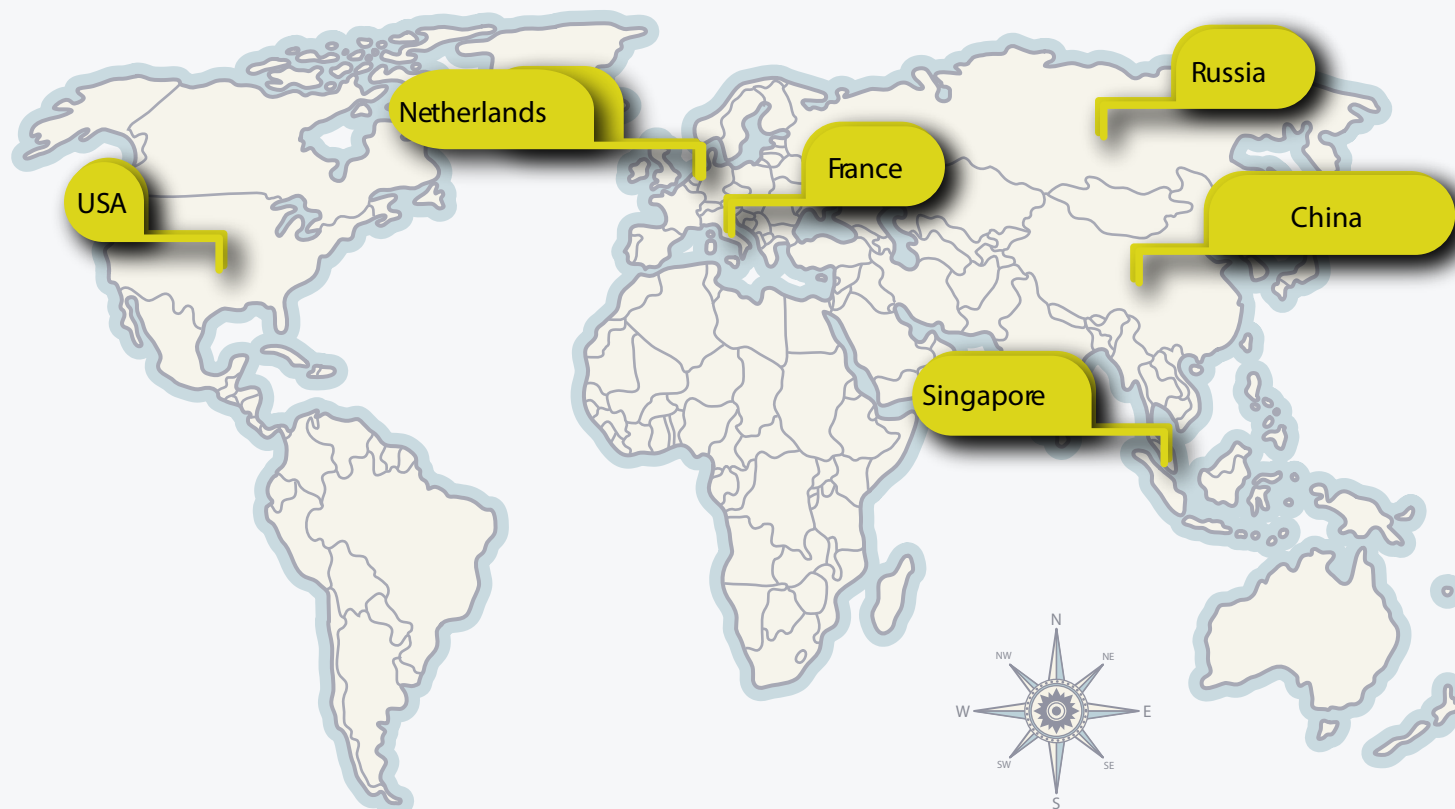

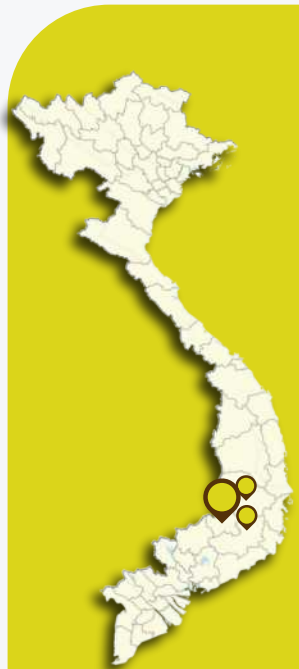

Vietnamese Good Agricultural Practices: VietGAP is the abbreviation of the Vietnamese Good Agricultural Practices, which means that good agricultural practices. It is the application of production methods to produce clean and safe products, especially fresh fruit and vegetable.

Besides reliable raw materials, preliminary processing and post-harvest preservation also directly affect product quality. For this reason, the company is always proactive in strictly implementing food safety and hygiene standards and upgrading the management system. Specifically, in 2019, Hoa Loc RR company obtained a HACCP certificate, an internationally recognized certificate of quality control and safety management in production.

In 2022, the company continues to improve itself and achieves ISO 22000: 2018. The above certificates are both pride and motivation for the company's collective to strive for higher achievements
